INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O God, we find ourselves running away from you and what you want us to do — just like Jonah.
We confess our many excuses.
We are not good enough, smart enough
or talented enough.
We forget that you have called us to do your work.
We turn and walk the other way.
You have a way of bringing us back to teach us that your way is best.
We go through hard times
because we are not willing to listen.
O God, give us courage to follow your leading and your request of each of us to serve you in the way you have intended.
Thank you for your patience
as you lead us back to yourself over and over again.
Amen.

Affirmation of Faith: The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, light from light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WORDS FOR THE SHARING WORDS FOR THE SHARING

In the midst of uncertain times, it is a good and right thing to remind ourselves not just of what could be but of what will be.

We worship the God who created time, and whose promises stand firm forever.

The Scriptures tell us that God's eternal Kingdom will contain "a great crowd that no one could number. They [are] from every nation, tribe, people, and language." (Revelation 7:9, CEB)

We worship the God who created every nation, tribe, people, and language out of love. And so God's promise of grace is offered to all.

Following his death and resurrection, which we remember and celebrate through the practice of communion, and in his final words to us on earth, Jesus commissioned us to "go and make disciples of all nations." (Matthew 28:19, CEB)

We worship the God who calls us from the sidelines and invites us into the work of the Kingdom. One of God's blessings is the opportunity to join in the fulfilling of God's promises.

We eat bread and drink our cup today, remind us that we do not do so in isolation. We are part of a universal and diverse Church that crosses every line the world uses to divide us.

Worship the God who is preparing for us a great heavenly banquet where one day we will all feast together. May our faith in God's promises inspire us to build bridges in our community, our country, and across the world. Amen.
