Easter Carol

John Leavitt
Based on Piae Cantiones, 1582

Spring has now unwrapped the flowers;
Day is fast reviving.
Life in all its fertile pow'rs
Toward the light is striving.
Herb and plant that winter-long
Slumbered at their leisure,
Now bestirring green and strong
Find in growth their pleasure!

All the world has come alive,
All the earth is budding.
Bees are humming round the hive,
Done with winter's brooding.
Snow and frost have been undone,
Winds are soft and tender.
High above the regal sun
Shines in all its splendour!

All creatures of our God and King,
Lift up your voice and with us sing:
Alleluia, alleluia, Oh, praise him!

This our joy and this our feast
This our great surprising:
Young and old and best and least
See their own arising.
We, the newborn patterns are
Of our God and Maker:
Christ, our spring beyond compare!
Christ, our good Creator!
