

Philippians 1:12-18

<sup>12</sup>I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually resulted in the progress of the gospel, <sup>13</sup>so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard<sup>[a]</sup> and to everyone else that my imprisonment is for Christ, <sup>14</sup>and most of the brothers and sisters, having been made confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, dare to speak the word<sup>[b]</sup> with greater boldness and without fear.

<sup>15</sup>Some proclaim Christ from envy and rivalry but others from goodwill. <sup>16</sup>These proclaim Christ out of love, knowing that I have been put here for the defense of the gospel; <sup>17</sup>the others proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely but intending to increase my suffering in my imprisonment. <sup>18</sup>What does it matter? Just this, that Christ is proclaimed in every way, whether out of false motives or true, and in that I rejoice.

Yes, and I will rejoice,
