INVOCATION AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Jesus, the new command you gave your followers
is so short and clear:
"Love one another" you say to us.
But each time we hear these words,
this much is apparent;
we often love only the attractive and the deserving,
we know well the toxic pleasures of hate and malice,
we hide our face from the world,
indifferent and distracted,
we make excuses, hold onto grudges,
and explain away our disdain for others.
Love one another?!
A short and straightforward command.
A difficult and daunting way to live.
And we have failed.
Patient Spirit,
grow in us fresh expressions of empathy
and understanding and show us love's healing power;
that we might be agents of divine love in this world,
amazed by the love we have received,
transformed by the love we share.

(Silence for personal confession and reflection)

RESPONSIVE READING (Based on Acts 17:24-28)

One: The God who made the world and everything in it,
Creator of heaven and earth,

Many: who does not live in shrines or temples
made by human hands,

One: the One not served by human beings,
the One who does not need anything,

Many: the One who gives all creatures life and breath
and everything else.

One: The God who made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of their lands,

Many: so they would seek and perhaps even reach out and grope for and find their Maker —

One: Indeed our Creator is not far from each one of us,

Many: 'In him we live and move and have our being';

All: 'For we, too, are his offspring.'
